CONSERVATION REPORT CARD

EVALUATING THE 119TH CONGRESS

Defenders of Wildlife is a national, nonprofit organization dedicated to the protection of all native animals and plants in their natural communities. Defenders' approach to conservation is direct and straightforward: We protect and restore imperiled species throughout North America by transforming policies and institutions and promoting innovative solutions. Informed by scientific, legal and policy expertise, hands-on wildlife management experience and effective advocacy, we strive to make a lasting difference for wildlife and its habitat in these uniquely challenging times. Defenders engages in vigorous congressional advocacy efforts in support of our mission. We express our views on legislation affecting wildlife and public lands, work to achieve acceptable pro-wildlife and habitat outcomes, and grade lawmakers on their votes in our annual conservation report cards.

Defenders of Wildlife's 2025 Conservation Report Card measures the commitment of U.S. senators and representatives to wildlife and habitat conservation during the first session of the 119th Congress. It tells you at a glance whether your elected representatives are preserving America's natural heritage for our children and grandchildren in the various votes they are casting.

This report card reviews nine House votes and nine Senate votes with serious implications for wildlife, habitat and the environment. In 2025, the House and Senate worked to politicize federal agency decision making to save species from extinction and undo science-based protections for some of the nation's most treasured habitats. The House voted to undermine the scientific integrity of the Endangered Species Act (ESA) by revoking protections for the endangered longfin smelt and the gray wolf. It also voted to weaken environmental reviews and other protections to allow more logging, oil development and mining on federal lands. The Senate voted to confirm leading oil advocate Doug Burgum as the Secretary of the Interior and rejected an amendment encouraging the reinstatement of recently fired federal land managers.

In significant blows to wildlife protection, Congress enacted a budget bill with provisions to dramatically boost oil and gas drilling on public lands and off our nation's coasts, increase logging on our public lands, and otherwise inflict severe damage on wildlife and habitat. Both houses also voted to promote damaging extractive uses by overturning various science-based land management plans, including ones for Alaska's Central Yukon and Arctic regions.

Fortunately, Congress did not approve a couple of proposals to do even more damage to wildlife and the habitats on which they depend for their survival. Two measures were rejected that would have further undermined the Endangered Species Act and the species this highly effective law protects. The House voted down an amendment to exempt the military from complying with the Endangered Species Act. The Senate soundly defeated a measure to reject science-based protections to stop the imminent extinction of the northern spotted owl.

More detailed descriptions of the votes listed in this document can be found at:

www.defenders.org/take-action/conservation-report-card.

1 CONFIRMING A LEADING OIL ADVOCATE AS INTERIOR SECRETARY

The Senate approved Doug Burgum as Secretary of the Interior, putting a long-time ally of the fossil fuel industry in charge of overseeing the nation's public lands and natural resources (January 30, 2025, Roll Call No. 26).

2 REINSTATING FIRED FEDERAL LAND MANAGERS

The Senate rejected an amendment that would have offered support to reinstate federal land managers working for the Fish and Wildlife Service, Forest Service, Bureau of Land Management, and National Park Service who were fired, leaving these important agencies understaffed (February 20, 2025, Roll Call No. 68).

3 ANTI-REGULATORY POLITICIZING OF AGENCY DECISIONS

The Senate passed an amendment that offered support for an anti-regulatory effort to require all significant agency actions that protect the environment to be affirmatively approved by both houses of Congress, subjecting scientific agency decisions to politicization. (February 21, 2025, Roll Call No. 85).

4 PREVENTING PUBLIC LANDS SELL-OFFS

The Senate rejected an amendment that would have prohibited selling-off public lands for budgetary purposes (April 5, 2025, Roll Call No. 181).

5 SACRIFICING WILDLIFE AND HABITAT TO FUND BILLIONAIRE TAX BREAKS

The Senate passed a budget reconciliation bill that would dramatically increase oil and gas drilling on our public lands and off our nation's coasts, increase logging on our public lands, and otherwise inflict severe damage on wildlife and habitat (July 1, 2025, Roll Call No. 372).

6 OVERTURNING LAND MANAGEMENT FOR EXTRACTIVE INDUSTRIES

The Senate passed a resolution to overturn the Bureau of Land Management's Central Yukon resource management plan in Alaska to subject these lands to mining and drilling for oil and gas by extractive industries (October 9, 2025, Roll Call No. 560).

7 REJECTING SCIENCE-BASED PROTECTION FOR SPOTTED OWLS

The Senate rejected a Congressional Review Act resolution to overturn a science-based plan under the Endangered Species Act which outlines necessary conservation actions to stop the imminent extinction of the northern spotted owl (October 29, 2025, Roll Call No. 597).

8 ROLLING BACK PROTECTIONS IN THE NATIONAL PETROLEUM RESERVE – ALASKA FOR THE OIL AND GAS INDUSTRY

The Senate approved a Congressional Review Act resolution that would overturn protections for the National Petroleum Reserve – Alaska, revoking a comprehensive approach to managing unique ecological values in favor of less restricted oil and gas development (October 3, 2025, Roll Call No. 599).

9 UNDERMINING CONSERVATION TO ADVANCE OIL AND GAS DRILLING IN THE ARCTIC REFUGE

The Senate approved a Congressional Review Act resolution that would overturn protections for the Arctic National Wildlife Refuge's Coastal Plain, revoking protections for an iconic and pristine ecosystem and creating regulatory uncertainty (December 4, 2025, Roll Call No. 632).

NOTE: Legislators who served a full term received "Incomplete" scores if they missed more than 25% of the key votes. Legislators who served a partial term did not receive "Incomplete" scores unless they missed more than 25% of the key votes while they were in office.

HOUSE

KEY ISSUES & VOTES

1 ALLOWING LOGGING PROJECTS TO AVOID ENVIRONMENTAL REVIEWS

The House passed a bill that would open federal land to logging projects by avoiding environmental reviews under the National Environmental Policy Act, ignoring science relevant to species under the ESA, and blocking access to judicial review (January 23, 2025, Roll Call No. 25).

2 REVOKING PROTECTIONS FOR THE IMPERILED LONGFIN SMELT

The House approved a Congressional Review Act resolution that would have overturned ESA protections for the endangered longfin smelt, undermining the scientific integrity of the ESA (May 1, 2025, Roll Call No. 113).

3 SACRIFICING WILDLIFE AND HABITAT TO FUND BILLIONAIRE TAX BREAKS

The House passed a budget reconciliation bill that would dramatically increase oil and gas drilling on our public lands and off our nation's coasts, increase logging on our public lands, and otherwise inflict severe damage on wildlife and habitat (July 3, 2025, Roll Call No. 190).

4 OVERTURNING LAND MANAGEMENT FOR EXTRACTIVE INDUSTRIES

The House passed a resolution to overturn the Bureau of Land Management's Central Yukon resource management plan in Alaska in order to subject these lands to mining and drilling for oil and gas by extractive industries (September 3, 2025, Roll Call No. 225).

5 EXEMPTING THE MILITARY FROM COMPLYING WITH THE ESA

The House rejected an amendment that would have exempted the U.S. military from complying with the ESA (September 10, 2025, Roll Call No. 259).

HOUSE

6 UNDERMINING CONSERVATION TO ADVANCE OIL AND GAS DRILLING IN THE ARCTIC REFUGE

The House approved a Congressional Review Act resolution that would overturn protections for the Arctic National Wildlife Refuge's Coastal Plain, revoking protections for an iconic and pristine ecosystem and creating regulatory uncertainty (November 18, 2025, Roll Call No. 295).

7 ROLLING BACK PROTECTIONS IN THE NATIONAL PETROLEUM RESERVE – ALASKA FOR THE OIL AND GAS INDUSTRY

The House approved a Congressional Review Act resolution that would overturn protections for the National Petroleum Reserve – Alaska, revoking a comprehensive approach to managing unique ecological values in favor of less restricted oil and gas development (November 18, 2025, Roll Call No. 296).

8 WEAKENING ENVIRONMENTAL REVIEW OF FEDERAL PROJECTS

The House passed a bill that would weaken and circumvent environmental review under the National Environmental Policy Act by cutting science, community input, and judicial review out of the process for a wide range of projects. (December 18, 2025, Roll Call No. 356).

9 REVOKING PROTECTIONS FOR THE GRAY WOLF

The House passed a bill to delist the gray wolf under the ESA, which would revoke federal protections for the species and undermine the scientific integrity of the ESA (December 18, 2025, Roll Call No. 360).

NOTE: Legislators who served a full term received “Incomplete” scores if they missed more than 25% of the key votes. Legislators who served a partial term did not receive “Incomplete” scores unless they missed more than 25% of the key votes while they were in office.
