

A Finalist in the International Wildlife Film Festival 2009 and the Reel Earth Film Festival 2009 New Zealand.

DIVISION STREET

Colorado premiere of “Division Street”

Tuesday, June 30th 7pm - 8:45pm

Durango Arts Center

Presentation by Dr. Marcel Huijser, Western Transportation Institute and the Colorado Department of Transportation

Q&A on the US 160 Animal Detection System to follow hour-long film
*refreshments will be available - ADMISSION IS FREE**

“Roads are the largest human artifact on the planet;
they have fragmented wild landscapes and ushered in the ‘age of urban sprawl.’” - *Dr. Richard Foreman, Harvard University

“Division Street” presents a new generation of ecologists, engineers, planners, and everyday citizens who are making way for wildlife by transforming the future of the American road.

Sponsored by

LA PLATA COUNTY

LIVING WITH WILDLIFE ADVISORY BOARD
Helping People & Wildlife Live Together Successfully

www.co.laplata.co.us/lwab/lwab.html

